

Wedding Day Costs

There are two ways of getting married at Brympton, chose between the 'House' or the 'Orangery'. With both options you can choose between a civil ceremony in the beautiful 1350 Dower House or a religious ceremony in the Parish Church of St Andrew's (if you qualify and by arrangement with the vicar). Orangery Weddings then move on to our delightful 1710 Orangery for a drinks reception, wedding breakfast and evening party. House Weddings enjoy a drinks reception either on the glorious South Terrace or in the Great Hall, with a wedding breakfast served in the ballroom and an evening reception in the Orangery. All house weddings include complimentary use of the Bridal Suite. From the spring of 2011 the Walled Garden at Brympton House will also host wedding parties with the use of the Dower House to get married in, the Walled Garden for the drinks reception, the ménage marquee for the wedding breakfast and the Orangery for the evening party.
