

Winter Wedding Offers 2011

Brympton is a wonderful place to hold a winter wedding – with a fire blazing in the Great Hall they are warm, intimate and colourful. Treat your guests to a warming glass of mulled wine with the canapés; decorate the ballroom and orangery with ivy and candles, light up the winter sky with a spectacular firework display, feast on a hog roast...and all at prices substantially less than in the spring or summer!

Brympton really does glow in the wintertime – so much so in fact that many of the couples who were planning on a spring or summer wedding fall in love with the idea of a winter wedding when they actually see it!

As one of our winter brides describes: Brympton is simply beautiful in the winter...when I walked into the Great Hall and the fire was blazing I set my heart on a winter wedding straight away. On the day we lit the Dower House with candles and filled the ballroom with Christmas roses. It was a really perfect day – Abigail, January 2009
